PROCEDURE FOR AWARDS

May, 1970

I. Distinguished Service Award

- A. Awards Committee selects nominee(s) but any member may recommend a nominee to the Committee. This, the highest W.D.A. award, need not be given every year.
- B. Awards Committee sends 15 copies of biographical sketch and bibliography to Secretary for distribution to Council about two months before the annual meeting.
- C. Council votes on nominee by mail.
- D. At the Annual Banquet, President calls on Awards Chairman for nominations. Awards Chairman nominates the member, reads biographical sketch and returns to his table.
- E. President presents framed certificate.

II. Emeritus Members

- A. Awards Committee selects nominee(s) but any member may recommend a nominee to the Committee.
- B. Awards Committee sends 15 copies of biographical sketch and bibliography to Secretary for distribution to Council about two months before the annual meeting.
- C. Council votes on nominee(s) at annual Council meeting or by mail.
- D. At Business Meeting (or Annual Banquet), President calls on Awards Chairman for nominations. Awards Chairman nominates the member, reads biographical sketch and returns to his table.
- E. President acknowledges nomination(s) and President presents certificate.

Under this procedure the business must be confidential because of the voting procedure. However, in case it is suspected that the nominee does not plan to attend the meeting, the Committee asks a friend of the nominee to try to persuade him to attend.

Awards Committee

R. M. Robinson
G. L. Hoffman (Chairman)

Correction

Re: Emerson, H. R. and W. T. Wright, THE ISOLATION OF A BABESIA IN WHITE-TAILED DEER, Bull. Wildlife Dis. Assoc. 4: 142.

It was brought to my attention by Dr. Norman D. Levine that the name Babesia cervi had been used by Wenyon (1926) in his book. I have asked Dr. Levine to list this piroplasm as "Babesia odocoilei Emerson and Wright, n. sp." in his paper on piroplasm taxonomy which will appear in the Transactions of the American Microscopical Society.

I would appreciate it if you would insert a note in the Journal stating that the name of this piroplasm has been changed to "Babesia odocoilei Emerson and Wright, n.sp."

H. Ray Emerson.
